

Appreciating The Miracle

To practise the Short Path is to be aware of the miracle entailed in every moment of living. 23.1.115

Recognition is a prominent feature on the Short Path. The Divine is always there but only those on the Short Path recognize this truth and think accordingly. The world is always with us, but only those on the Short Path recognize the miracle that it is. In moments of exaltation, uplift, awe, or satisfaction--derived from music, art, poetry, landscape, or otherwise--thousands of people have received a Glimpse; but only those on the Short Path recognize it for what it really is. 23.1.114

Every person you meet is God in disguise.
When you remove the filters of your mind,
God is right there in front of you

Eckhart Tolle: “You are an emanation of God...

What you sense in yourself as consciousness, the presence, emanates from the source of all life which we can call God. So, you are an emanation of God. ... the consciousness that pervades this universe, becomes focalized through this particular form: this consciousness that you can know in yourself consciously as a presence, and you are that presence.

There is a sense of the sacred presence within and without.

It is a presence that is vast, and you are an inseparable part of it. ... it is a state of consciousness.

The sense of the sacred presence frees you from the mind made sense of self. It shines through the life forms, but also found in the formless stillness. The acknowledgment of that, one could call gratitude.

And gratitude is really in a deeper or wider sense: acknowledging the sacredness of the present moment . Not grateful to something or someone, it is a state of consciousness: appreciation of the beauty and sacredness of life. ET
