

SIX-POINTED STAR interrelates two three-fold triangles:

Sat-Cit-Ananda or Isness-awareness-bliss;

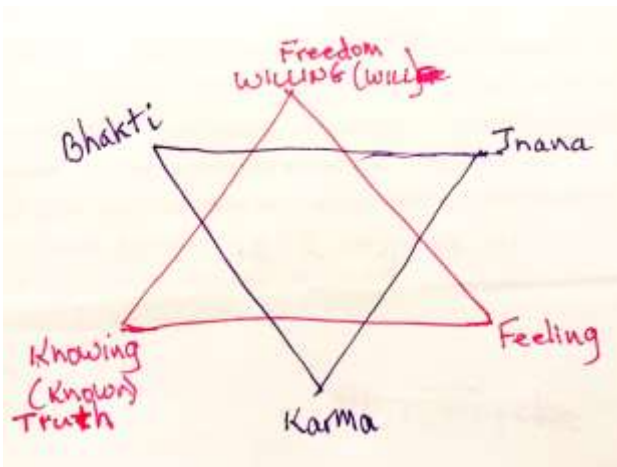

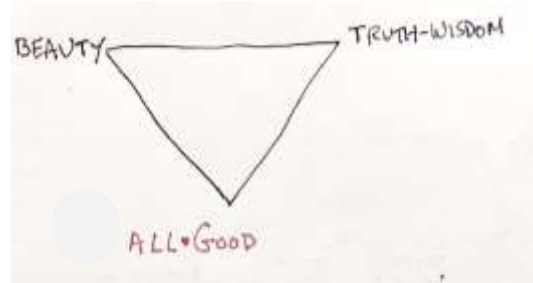

--the "subjective": I-Am-ness isness;
Awareness-knowing-Cit; Bliss-Feeling-Ananda

Good-True-Beautiful or Being-Intelligence-Life.

-- the "objective": Good; Truth-Wisdom;
Beautiful

Also: knowing -feeling-willing ; Jnana-Bhakti-Karma ; Uranus-Neptune-Pluto.

(following the pointer of Bhattacharya): The absolutes for knowing, willing and feeling

Jnana pursues Truth as the ultimate for the known,

Bhakti pursues Bliss/Love/Beauty as the ultimate for feeling relation,

Karma pursues Freedom as the ultimate for the subject willer.

Summarized by Nisargadatta as

"Awareness of Being is Bliss.

Being Awareness is Bliss."

AND: Rajaji Fun Audio/text \(jnana and bhakti\)

This gives three pairs of “complementarities”:

Satyam-Sunya: being and Void,
ananda-anantam: bliss and infinity: ,
cit-jnanam: awareness and intelligence.
