

SACRED PRESENCE: *Simple and Profound pointers to Reality

So intimate that you can't take it out and look at it, but you can recognize that "you are that awareness disguised as a person." (Tolle)

A great Master said "Don't meditate: only put your mind in the state of natural vast repose."

So pervasive we take it for granted So appreciate the Miracle; "be aware of the miracle entailed in every moment of living." 23:1.115 be grateful for Life.

Recognition is a prominent feature on the Short Path. The Overself is always there but only those on the Short Path recognize this truth .... The world is always with us, but only those on the Short Path recognize the miracle that it is... 23.1.114

So formless you can't figure it out: Awesome. Mystery.

Q: As I listen to you... I am astonished to find myself without questions.

M: You can know reality only when you are astonished. Ch.88

All good, whatever happens: So smile and say Yes to Is. Joy. Love. "In finding the godlike within ourselves, we find also the Good. And from that stems forth goodwill toward all..." 22.6.78

"The Overself is the God within the heart, is your best friend, your teacher, your mother in times of difficulty; it is all good and its nature is love, acceptance and forgiveness."
