

Kevin Anderson:

Natal Sun, Moon, Mercury degrees (Jones Interpretations)

SUN

28 ♀ The king of the fairies approaching his domain.

This is a symbol of the eternal promise underlying all inner self-realization, since any actual fullness of life is altogether independent of the passing state of affairs in a world of time and space.... the degree is a special competence of inward vision and a consequent outward perspective of high effectiveness

MOON

30 ♀ The Halloween jester.

This is a symbol of a proper informality in the release of the buoyant energies through which an individual gains refreshment, or is freed for the moment from life's insistent demand on him that he live according to some ideal beyond his potentiality. The dignification of what often becomes an overbroad humor here serves its purpose by encouraging man to attempt new and various modes of contact with his fellows, and thus ultimately to achieve a more genuine spiritual sensitiveness. The keyword is SPONTANEOUSNESS

MERCURY

27 ♀ A military band on the march.

This is a symbol of the human spirit's continual desire to avoid everyday trivialities and drabness, ever pressing on toward some goal which can become a basis for a more enduring and individual reality. The blare of self-affirmation is a rejection of the lesser experience which brings only a self-satiety, and its martial nature arises from the realization that things of worth must be gained at the price of a thoroughly self-mobilized effort. The keyword is INTREPIDITY.
