You are a unification of God...

Can only return to God by name you are named:

The uniqueness of each person, their difference from every other person, may be metaphysically explained as due to the effort of Infinite Mind to express itself infinitely within the finite limitation of time and space, form and appearance. 25.1.157

individuality and the Monad

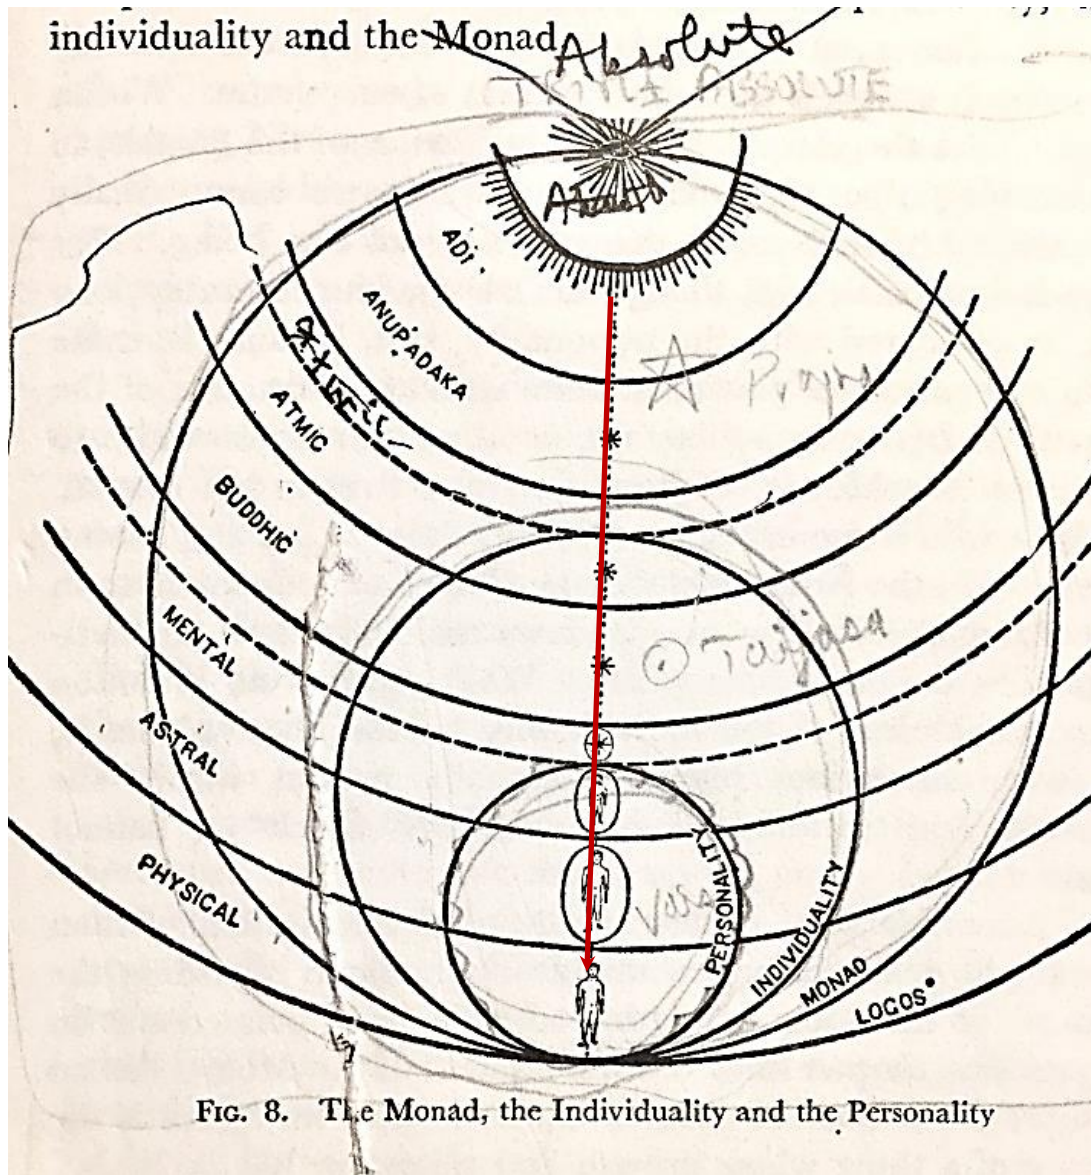

FIG. 8. The Monad, the Individuality and the Personality

There is some kind of a distinction between our higher individuality and the Universal Infinite out of which it is rayed, whatever the Vedantins may say. And this distinction remains in the highest mystical state, which is not one of total absorption and utter destruction of this individuality but the mergence of its own will in the universal will, the closest intimacy of its own being with the universal being. 25.2.200

The unit of mind is differentiated out and undergoes its long evolution through numerous changes of state, not to merge so utterly in its source again as to be virtually annihilated, but to be consciously harmonized with that source whilst yet retaining its individuality. 25.2.204

...The self-consciousness thus developed will not be dissolved, extinguished, or re-absorbed into the Whole again, leaving not a trace behind. Rather will it begin a new spiral of evolution towards higher altitudes of consciousness and diviner levels of being, in which it will co-operate as harmoniously with the universal existence as formerly it collided against it. It will not separate its own good from the general good. ...

The ascent is not a circle but a spiral...
